
JILL COLUCCI

HITS, HEALING & HOPE

• A W A R D - W I N N I N G

The Alzheimer's Support Network is delighted to welcome back multi-platinum award-winning songwriter Jill Colucci. Jill's #1 hits include song of the Year "No One Else on Earth" by Wynonna Judd, "I'm Gonna Be Somebody" by Travis Tritt, and "Anymore" which she co-wrote with Travis. Her songs have sold over 20 million records worldwide. Writer and vocalist of ABC's "America's Funniest Home videos" theme song, vocalist for the ABC TV theme, and vocalist for the Disney channel theme song, "Celebrate Me Home", Jill has written and sang on numerous television shows, films and national commercials such as Toyota, McDonald's, Chevrolet, Taco Bell and Coca Cola, to name a few. Although Jill has enjoyed much commercial success, she has also experienced great loss in the last ten years. She refers to this period in her life as, "The Lost Decade." During this time, her music changed, her heart was opened more fully, and her songs became the vehicles for her healing. Her new CD, "Heal My Heart" is the expression of her triumph over loss and the manifestation of her new path in life. Jill is dedicating these songs to all those who have experienced any kind of loss in their lives, hoping once again to prove that music speaks louder than words. Please join us for this special performance that will celebrate and honor those we have loved and lost.
